a consideration of LR 298 and (LR) 299.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The motion to suspend the rules is adopted. Mr. Clerk, for purposes of modifying the agenda, what are the two numbered resolutions that'll be added to this list?

CLERK: (LR) 298 and (LR) 299, Mr. Speaker, 298, 299.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Members, the agenda will be modified to include Legislative Resolutions 298 and 299 within this list for which we begin the day. These resolutions before us now are to be considered collectively. Mr. Clerk, LR 122.

CLERK: (LR) 122, Mr. President, found on page 1820 of the Journal, by Senator Robak.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. This resolution not only honors Crystal Zabka, but it also honors Brenda Andreasen. They are both students at St. Edward High School, and that's a Class II high school. They have accomplished a lot in the Women's National Powerlifting championships in Lincoln. Each lifter there competed for the title of the nation's strongest powerlifter...and I thought Senator Chambers would be interested in their part...in their weight and age division. They were also included on Nebraska's elite powerlifting team which consisted of the very best powerlifters from across the state of Nebraska. They competed with tough competition from 35 different states. They also as far away as from Alaska to Florida, as far east as New York, to far west as California. Crystal competed in the national teenage 14 to 15, 104 pound class. She...the open division of the lifters ranged from 14 to 16. She broke three American records they had set earlier in April. Her new record is squat lift at 102.5 kgs to 227.75 pounds and her new American mark in dead lifting is 107.5 kgs which is 236.7 pounds. She...also, her new records in squat lifting dead lift, along with person (inaudible) in bench. She pressed 37.5 kgs, 83 pounds. She reset the total mark at 247.5 kg, 545.5. She was not being done for her performance at the Women's Nationals, however, she was
